

Step 3 – Your citizenship/immigration status

Fill in the section that applies to you, your spouse or common-law partner, or both of you.

A – Canadian citizen

You become a Canadian citizen when you are born in Canada or are granted Canadian citizenship by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada.

You

Enter the date this status began:

Year	Month	Day
------	-------	-----

Your spouse or common-law partner

Year	Month	Day
------	-------	-----

B – Permanent resident

You become a permanent resident when you are given permanent resident status in Canada by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. This date is shown on your confirmation document (such as your record of landing, your confirmation of permanent residence, or on the back of your permanent resident card).

You

Enter the date this status began:

Year	Month	Day
------	-------	-----

Your spouse or common-law partner

Year	Month	Day

C – Protected person

You become a protected person when you receive a positive notice of decision from the Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada after Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada determines that you are a person in need of protection or a Convention refugee, or your pre-removal risk assessment application is approved. This status date is shown on your positive notice of decision from the Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada or a verification of status document from Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. If you are a refugee claimant and have not yet received your positive notice of decision, we do not consider you a protected person.

You

Enter the date this status began:

Year	Month	Day
------	-------	-----

Your spouse or common-law partner

Year	Month	Day
------	-------	-----

D – Temporary resident

You become a temporary resident when you are legally authorized by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada to enter Canada for temporary purposes, such as a visitor, student, worker or temporary resident permit holder. You were given a confirmation document (such as a visitor record, a temporary resident permit, or a study permit) that shows a start date and an expiry date.

As a temporary resident (as defined in the Immigration and Refugee protection Act), you or your spouse or common-law partner must meet both of the following requirements:

- lived in Canada throughout the previous 18 months
- have a valid permit in the 19th month (do not apply before the 19th month)

Note

If your permit has a remark stating "does not confer status" or "does not confer temporary resident status", you do not satisfy the condition for temporary resident and should not apply.

Enter the start date and expiry date of each document that covers the period after your 18 months of residency. If you need more space, use a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form.

E – Individual who is registered, or entitled to be registered under the Indian Act, who is not a Canadian citizen

If you or your spouse or common-law partner are an individual who is registered, or entitled to be registered under the Indian Act, and are not a Canadian citizen, enter the registration date with Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada (INAC).

You

Enter the date of registration with INAC:

Year	Month	Day
------	-------	-----

Your spouse or common-law partner

Year	Month	Day
------	-------	-----

Step 4 – Your income

Enter your and your spouse or common-law partner's (if you have one) income from all sources that was not reported on a Canadian tax return. All amounts must be converted into Canadian dollars using the Bank of Canada exchange rate in effect when you received the income. For the exchange rates, go to bankofcanada.ca/rates/exchange.

Enter "0" if you had no income.

Note

If you are an individual who is registered, or entitled to be registered under the Indian Act, do not report the portion of income that qualifies for the tax exemption under section 87 of the Indian Act. For more information, go to canada.ca/taxes-indigenous-peoples and select "Information on the tax exemption under section 87 of the Indian Act."

If you became a resident of Canada:

- between January 1 and May 31, enter your income in sections A, B and C
- between June 1 and December 31, enter your income in sections A and B

A – The year you became a resident of Canada

Enter the year you became a resident of Canada:

Year

Do not enter your spouse or common-law partner's income in this section if they did not become a resident of Canada in the year indicated. You will need to report their income for this year on Form CTB9, Income of Non-Resident Spouse or Common-Law Partner, when you do your taxes for the year you became a resident of Canada.

	You	Your spouse or common-law partner
Enter the income earned from January 1 of that year to the date you each became a resident:	$ <table border="1"><tr><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr></table>					$ <table border="1"><tr><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr></table>

B – One year before you became a resident of Canada

Enter the year that is one year before you became a resident of Canada:

Year

For example, if you became a resident of Canada in 2022, you would enter "2021."

	You	Your spouse or common-law partner
Enter the income earned one year before you each became a resident of Canada:	$ <table border="1"><tr><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr></table>					$ <table border="1"><tr><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr></table>

C – Two years before you became a resident of Canada

Fill in this section only if you became a resident of Canada between January 1 and May 31 of the year you entered in section A.

Enter the year that is two years before you became a resident of Canada:

Year

For example, if you became a resident of Canada on February 15, 2022, you would enter "2020."

	You	Your spouse or common-law partner
Enter the income earned two years before you each became a resident of Canada:	$ <table border="1"><tr><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr></table>					$ <table border="1"><tr><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr></table>

Step 5 – Signature

Once this form is filled out

- Make sure all steps of this form are filled out.
- Make a photocopy for your records.
- Attach this form to your Form RC66, Canada Child Benefits Application, or send it to the tax centre that serves your area.

You do not have to send supporting documents with this form. However, we may ask you to send them at a later date.

How to get your benefit and credit payments

As a newcomer or returning resident of Canada, the information provided on this form will be used to calculate your entitlement, if eligible, for the Canada child benefit, the goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax (GST/HST) credit, the climate action incentive payment, and any other related provincial or territorial programs administered by the CRA.

To continue receiving benefits and credits, you need to do your taxes on time every year so that the CRA can calculate your payments, even if you had no income in the year. If you have a spouse or common-law partner, they also need to do their taxes every year.

Make sure your personal information is up to date with the CRA, as this could affect your payments.

If your spouse or common-law partner is a non-resident of Canada, the CRA needs their income information for each year or part of a year they were a non-resident of Canada to determine your child and family benefits and credits. You can provide this information by filling out Form CTB9, Income of Non-Resident Spouse or Common-Law Partner. Mail it to the tax centre that serves your area or submit it electronically using My Account at canada.ca/my-cra-account. You can also call 1-800-387-1193 to provide the information.
