Privacy Notice

Personal information provided on this document is collected by Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) under the authority of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA). The personal information provided may be used for the purpose of processing an application. The personal information provided may be disclosed to other federal government institutions, law enforcement bodies, designated Economic Development organizations, provincial/territorial governments and foreign governments for the purpose of validating identity, eligibility and admissibility.

Information related to:

- your identity, including any personal information from your immigrant case file;
- your resettlement needs related to your immediate health and safety; and
- information you have provided in interviews to a migration officer, including copies of supporting documents, may be shared with:
 - the International Organization for Migration;
 - any organization under contract or that has an information-sharing arrangement with Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) to provide refugee processing services;
 - provincial/territorial health authorities in Canada, if based upon the results of your Immigration Medical Examination you have conditions placed on your admissibility to Canada;

Personal information may also be used for purposes including research, statistics, program and policy evaluation, internal audit, compliance, risk management, subsequent program eligibility, strategy development and reporting.

Failure to complete the document in full may result in a delay or the application not being processed. The Privacy Act gives individuals the right of access to and protection of their personal information, as well as a right to request a correction of their personal information. If you are not satisfied with the manner in which IRCC handles your personal information, you may exercise your right to file a complaint to the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada. The collection, use, disclosure and retention of your personal information is further described in IRCC's Personal Information Bank – IRCC PPU 042.
